A copy of the complete 2009 financial statements audited by Crowe Horwath, LLP is available upon request from the Elkhart County Community Foundation, 101 S. Main Street, Elkhart, IN 46516.

You may also download ECCF's 1.R.S. filings (Form 990) from our website (www.elkhartccf.org) or from GuideStar (www.guidestar.org). By law, as a public 501(c)3 charitable organization, we are required to report the enclosed financial information to you.

Our Mission

We inspire people to make charitable gifts that improve the quality of life in Elkhart County. As a public, tax-exempt, philanthropic organization, created in 1989 by and for all the people of the county, we solicit and develop endowment funds and distribute income from them for the benefit of our community.

We do so with enthusiasm, dedication and sincere passion, because the ECCF is the philanthropic catalyst for making positive change possible for adults and children in Elkhart County.

Individual gifts made through, not to, the ECCF build a permanent sum of monies with the interest from that sum – in the form of community grants – allowing us to respond to current, ongoing and emerging community needs.

Of the words that reflect what makes the ECCF noteworthy, there are three that are particularly significant: Mission, endowment and permanency.

On page 4 is our organization's mission statement. We refer to the endowment funds whose collective interest allow us to provide proactive grants to agencies that, in turn, improve the quality of life for adults and children who so greatly – and sometimes urgently – need our help.

The third, permanency, is key to our success. It is our consistency of purpose, tied to two decades of making positive change for our county a reality, that ensures our continued longevity. That's why we say: For good. For ever.® Right here.

ECCF's ability to turn donors' passion and their generosity, no matter how small or how large, into meaningful results is extraordinary. Because these results have the collective power to inspire, enrich, elevate and actually transform the lives of our communities' children, families and individuals.
